Dear Sir:

In response to the Office Action mailed January 11, 2006, Applicants hereby elect, reserving the right to traverse the Restriction Requirement, the invention of Species I (Claims 1, 22) for continued prosecution in this application. Claims 2-21 and 23-32, directed more particularly at the remaining identified Species II-XIII, are hereby withdrawn from further consideration but reserved for purposes of pursuing continuing/divisional patent applications.

This application is believed to now be in condition for allowance. Applicants would like to thank the Examiner for his assistance in this case.

Respectfully submitted,

C. John Brannon
